Reaching prospects can be a tricky. Reaching them through email can be especially challenging, unless you're working with Return Path. We make lead generation easy by providing email and demographic information for key influencers in IT, small business, pharmaceuticals, manufacturing, and hundreds of other desirable targets.

Best of all, everyone in our database has registered to be there using our patented double opt-in process through one of our many premier partners. And as the leading Email Change of Address (ECO) and deliverability company, you can trust that every list you rent from us will be current and mailable.

Learn how Return Path can help you use email to reach your target audience. Call 1-866-362-4577. Or, download our datacards and an email growth checklist at www.returnpath.biz/prospects.
